There were root ers in red uniforms and all sorts of marching regalia, who had deserted the parade downtown. Then there was the fan who sees but one game a year and the whole family of regulars. It was a crowd which filled every nook and corner of the stands, the bleachers and the club-house verandas and fought to

Several times the police had to take a hand in keeping the enthusiasts off the players' territory, but it was a good natural gathering and easily handled. Ground rules were of course necessary, a hit into the crowd going for three bases. Mathewson and Wilfor three bases. Mathewson and Wilhelm were the opposing pitchers in the first game and Matty had all the best of the battle and received perfect support. It was not until the ninth inning that the visitors were able to score, escaping a shut-out by a single taily.

Manager Duffy has agreed with New York to have the games with the Ginnts excheduled for Sept. 7, 8 and 9 transferred to that city. On those dates the Highlanders are to play three games with the Athletics in this city. and the clash would be a big financial loss to both clubs Practicent Pulliam wired his consent to the transfer this morning.
